

are pleased to offer...

How to Do Business with the State of Ohio

Diana Anthony is the Program Manager for the Ohio Turnpike and Infrastructure Commission's Office of Equity and Inclusion. Mrs. Anthony holds years of valuable experience. Her reputation is powered by her proficient knowledge in evaluating bids and proposals for good faith-effort and certifying Small, Minority and Disadvantage Business.

ODOT:

Lisa Washington serves as Regional Outreach Manager under the Office of Outreach of the Division of Opportunity, Diversity & Inclusion for the Ohio Department of Transportation (ODOT). Her outreach includes contact with Minority, Women, Small, and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) companies for ODOT Districts 1, 2 and 3 and collaborating with local, state and governmental agencies on outreach and educational activities.

Minority Business Assistance Centers

Jay Black, Jr. brings a wealth of experience in business, banking, finance and government to the director position at MBAC. "I have a real passion for working with small and disadvantaged businesses," he says. "I am sensitive to all the things entrepreneurs have to go through because I've been an entrepreneur."

State of Ohio

Procurement

Tonya Prickett is the Procurement Manager for the Minority Business Enterprise for the state of Ohio. She has 25 procurement experience in the public and private sector combined.

Featuring experts with information you need to know to sell your products to state entities.

Join Us

Tuesday, January 24, 2017 • 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Keese Hall - Room 120 • Rhodes State College

For more information contact

Tyrone Nichols • 567.242.5913 • Nichols.T@RhodesState.edu

We look forward to seeing YOU there!