

Mark Musson

Director of Contract Administration

Mark Musson assumed the duties as the Turnpike's Director of Contract Administration in June 2015 after joining the Commission in 2012 as a staff attorney and ascending to the Assistant General Counsel position in 2014. Mark's current responsibilities include overseeing the competitive procurement activities of the Commission, including its MBE/DBE Program.

Mark also provides advice to Commission personnel on drafting and construing a broad array of contractual arrangements.

Prior to working for the Commission, Mark served as an Assistant Director of Law for the City of Cleveland in the Law Department's Operations Section performing in-house counsel duties for the Department of Public Works, Department of Parks, Recreation and Properties, and Department of Public Service, and the Mayor's Office of Capital Projects and Office of Equal Opportunity.

Mark received Bachelor of Science in Public Management from School of Public and Environmental Affairs at Indiana University where he was inducted into Pi Alpha Alpha, the public administrator's honor society, and holds a master's degree in Urban Planning, Design and Development and a law degree from Cleveland State University.
