

---

8. Incidents Affecting Railroad Bridges

If an incident takes place in the proximity of a railroad bridge and it is determined that it may affect train traffic, then it is vital to notify the railroad. The railroad should be made aware of any incident and/or accident that is not on railroad property but may affect the railroad. These incidents may require the movements of trains to be stopped or slowed.

Refer to Appendix B for contact information